

NORTH COLLECTIVE

WEBSITE CONTENT & DESIGN BRIEF

Tagline:

SOURCE. BUILD. GROW.

OVERALL WEBSITE DIRECTION

North Collective should not feel like a furniture company.

North Collective should not feel like a procurement company.

North Collective should feel like a commercial project solutions platform that helps owners, developers, operators, contractors, and designers successfully execute projects.

The website should communicate:

- Commercial Project Expertise
- Procurement Leadership
- Supplier Relationships
- Strategic Partnerships
- Project Support
- Hospitality Expertise
- Multi-Industry Capability

The overall aesthetic should be:

- Modern
- Sophisticated
- Executive
- Clean
- Black & White Base
- Warm Bronze/Brown Accent Colour (from logo)
- High-End Photography
- Minimalist Layout
- Strong Typography
- Lots of White Space

Avoid an industrial office-building feel.

Use imagery that reflects:

- Hotels
- Restaurants
- Retirement Living
- Multi-Family Residential
- Interior Design
- Commercial Spaces
- Hospitality Environments

The site should feel more design-oriented and people-focused than construction-focused.

Let's try to be really precise on what we offer. Procurement for projects but that with our strategic network we also offer a range of services that can help with their project.

ABOUT NORTH COLLECTIVE

Headline:

BUILT ON EXPERIENCE.
DRIVEN BY RELATIONSHIPS.

Body Copy:

North Collective offers procurement services for projects in the hospitality and commercial industry. Beyond estimating and procuring, we also offer project support and supplier representation through our various partnerships.

We simplify complex projects by connecting clients with trusted suppliers, accurate budgeting, competitive procurement strategies, and experienced project support from concept through completion. - Good

With decades of combined industry experience, our team helps owners, developers, operators, designers, and contractors make better decisions, reduce risk, and improve project outcomes.

INDUSTRIES WE SERVE

Industries:

Hospitality

Restaurants & Food Service

Retirement & Senior Living

Multi-Family Residential - I don't think we should focus on multi family, takes wayyy to long and it's very aggressive for low price point. Developers always want a race to the bottom for pricing and it takes 5 years +. I don't think it's even worthwhile to put on our website. Most developers do the sourcing themselves or have the GC tender everything.

Allow partner logos to be added over time. - I think this is a good idea down the road, lets leave this section out for now as we don't have any

ABOUT PAGE

Headline:

A DIFFERENT APPROACH TO PROJECT DELIVERY

Body:

North Collective was created around a simple belief:

Successful projects require more than products.

They require the right relationships, the right strategy, and the right execution.

Our role is to help clients source smarter, build better, and grow stronger by providing access to trusted suppliers, experienced project resources, and practical solutions that create long-term value. - Love it

TRANSPARENT PROCUREMENT. TRUSTED PARTNERSHIPS.

At North Collective, we believe successful projects are built on trust, transparency, and long-term relationships.

We work collaboratively with a carefully selected network of preferred vendors and manufacturing partners, allowing us to deliver value-driven solutions while maintaining flexibility and objectivity.

Integrity is at the core of everything we do.

We believe clients deserve clear communication, transparent pricing structures, and honest recommendations that support the best interests of their project

By combining procurement expertise, strategic supplier relationships, and a commitment to accountability, North Collective provides a procurement process that is straightforward, transparent, and focused on delivering measurable value.

Because great partnerships are built on trust. - I've taken snippets of the wording from the section we are going to remove and put it here if we need more content. This sounds value based, but doesn't show how we structure our pricing

I feel like we can add our head shots in this section and have a little write up about our past experience.

Picture of Sara

Sara began her career in the hospitality and construction supply industry at a young age, working in her family's millwork company. She later expanded her expertise into hospitality finishes such as furniture, flooring and concrete tiles, developing a comprehensive understanding of interior finishes and procurement. With more than two decades of industry experience, Sara brings extensive knowledge in finishes, vendor coordination, supplier relationships, and project sourcing, helping clients navigate the procurement process with confidence and efficiency.

TRANSPARENT PROCUREMENT. TRUSTED PARTNERSHIPS.

At North Collective, we believe successful projects are built on trust, transparency, and long-term relationships.

Our hybrid pricing model is designed to align our interests with those of our clients, ensuring access to competitive pricing, qualified suppliers, and complete visibility throughout the procurement process.

We work collaboratively with a carefully selected network of preferred vendors and manufacturing partners, allowing us to deliver value-driven solutions while maintaining flexibility and objectivity.

Integrity is at the core of everything we do.

We believe clients deserve clear communication, transparent pricing structures, and honest recommendations that support the best interests of their project—not ours.

By combining procurement expertise, strategic supplier relationships, and a commitment to accountability, North Collective provides a procurement process that is straightforward, transparent, and focused on delivering measurable value.

Because great partnerships are built on trust.

Let's axe this portion all together. I think this is something we can sell to clients when they inquire. If we advertise were trustworthy, it makes it feel like we might not be. Also don't want competitors and the general public seeing how we structure our pricing.
